Day#	Morning 1	Morning 2	Summary for Morning's Scriptures	Evening 1	Evening 2	Summary for Evening's Scriptures
<input type="checkbox"/> 1	Gen 1	Mat 1	God creates the universe with order and purpose, entrusting humanity as stewards. Jesus' genealogy fulfills God's promises, linking Old Testament covenants to Christ's role as the Savior of all nations.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 1	Acts 1	God stirs Cyrus to restore Jerusalem, fulfilling prophecy. In Acts, Jesus commissions the apostles before ascending, and they wait in prayer for the promised Spirit. God's sovereign plan unfolds through kings and Christ to establish His people and witness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2	Gen 2	Mat 2	God institutes marriage and humanity's purpose in a harmonious creation. Jesus' divine protection in childhood reflects God's providence and the unfolding of His redemptive plan, inspiring trust in His sovereignty.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 2	Acts 2	The returning exiles are listed by family, underscoring covenant continuity. At Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descends, empowering apostles to proclaim Christ. God restores His people through both physical return and spiritual rebirth, fulfilling promises through Word and Spirit.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3	Gen 3	Mat 3	Humanity's fall introduces sin, death, and a need for grace. Jesus' baptism by John marks the beginning of His mission, emphasizing repentance, humility, and the fulfillment of God's redemptive kingdom.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 3	Acts 3	The altar is rebuilt and worship restored with joy amid fear. Peter heals a lame man, proclaiming Jesus as the risen Author of life. God renews worship and restores life through obedience, faith, and the resurrected Christ.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4	Gen 4	Mat 4	Cain's story warns of sin's destructive power and the need for repentance. Jesus' victory over temptation in the wilderness models reliance on God's Word and spiritual strength amid life's trials and challenges.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 4	Acts 4	Opposition delays temple rebuilding, yet God's purpose stands. Peter and John boldly proclaim Jesus despite threats. God's mission faces resistance, but the Spirit strengthens His people to persevere in truth and boldness, unshaken by worldly powers.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5	Gen 5	Mat 5	Genealogies affirm God's faithfulness through generations. The Beatitudes highlight Christ-like virtues—humility, mercy, and righteousness—calling believers to live counterculturally as witnesses of God's kingdom in daily life.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 5	Acts 5	Prophets urge rebuilding, and God favors their obedience before kings. In Acts, deceit in the church leads to judgment, while signs and preaching multiply. Holiness and faithfulness are vital as God's work advances through obedient leaders and divine power.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6	Gen 6	Mat 6	God sees man's corruption and instructs Noah; Jesus teaches secret devotion, trusting the Father who sees in secret, calling us to seek God's kingdom rather than earthly anxieties or treasures.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 6	Acts 6	Darius reaffirms the rebuilding, and joy fills the Passover celebration. In Acts, leaders delegate so the Word flourishes. God honors obedience and structures His church for growth, preserving unity, worship, and the spread of His Word.
<input type="checkbox"/> 7	Gen 7	Mat 7	God sends the flood to cleanse the earth, preserving Noah; Jesus calls for righteousness, warning of false prophets and urging us to build lives on obedience, like houses on rock.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 7	Acts 7	Ezra arrives, skilled in God's Law, to teach and restore. Stephen recounts Israel's history, revealing rejection of God's messengers. God's redemptive plan remains steadfast despite human failure; faithful teachers and witnesses reveal Christ through Scripture and sacrifice.
<input type="checkbox"/> 8	Gen 8	Mat 8	God remembers Noah, causes the waters to recede; Jesus calms storms, heals the sick, and shows divine authority over creation, restoring peace and cleansing outcasts with a touch.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 8	Acts 8	Ezra leads the return with fasting and prayer for safety. Philip proclaims Christ in Samaria and to the Ethiopian eunuch. God directs journeys, equips servants, and spreads His Word across nations with divine guidance and Spirit-filled boldness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 9	Gen 9	Mat 9-10	God covenants with Noah through the sign of the rainbow; Jesus forgives sins, heals, and sends His disciples, granting authority to preach and heal, calling them to suffer faithfully.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 9	Acts 9-10	Ezra weeps over sin, confessing Israel's unfaithfulness. Saul encounters Jesus and is transformed; Peter learns God welcomes all who believe. God's mercy calls sinners to repentance, removing barriers and reconciling all people through faith in Christ.
<input type="checkbox"/> 10	Gen 10-11	Mat 11	Nations descend from Noah; Babel reveals man's pride. Jesus invites the weary to rest in Him, revealing the Father to the humble, not the wise in their own eyes.	<input type="checkbox"/> Ezr 10	Acts 11	Israel repents, putting away foreign wives. Peter defends the Gentile inclusion, affirming God's impartial grace. True repentance leads to restored covenant life, and God's gospel expands to all who believe, reshaping community in righteousness and unity.
<input type="checkbox"/> 11	Gen 12	Mat 12	God calls Abram to trust His promises; Jesus identifies true family as those who do God's will and declares Himself greater than Jonah, the temple, and Solomon.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 1	Acts 12	Nehemiah mourns Jerusalem's ruin and prays for favor. Peter is miraculously freed from prison as Herod falls. God hears intercessory prayer, empowers His servants, and judges pride—His hand moves through history and leaders to protect His mission.
<input type="checkbox"/> 12	Gen 13	Mat 13	Abram lets Lot choose the land and trusts God's promise; Jesus teaches the kingdom in parables, revealing truth to the receptive and hiding it from the hard-hearted.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 2	Acts 13	Nehemiah inspects and begins rebuilding with favor and courage. Paul preaches in Antioch, tracing God's plan from Abraham to Jesus. Both narratives highlight God's providence, faithful leaders, and His Word calling people to believe and rebuild lives.
<input type="checkbox"/> 13	Gen 14	Mat 14	Abram rescues Lot and honors Melchizedek; Jesus feeds multitudes, walks on water, and invites faith amid fear, showing divine provision and authority.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 3	Acts 14	Diverse groups rebuild Jerusalem's wall together. Paul and Barnabas face hardship yet plant churches. Unity in mission builds God's kingdom—whether through bricks or the gospel—despite trials, God's people labor faithfully for His glory.
<input type="checkbox"/> 14	Gen 15	Mat 15	God reaffirms His covenant with Abram through a vision; Jesus exposes hypocrisy and heals the marginalized, honoring persistent faith over tradition.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 4	Acts 15	Enemies threaten, but builders pray, watch, and work. The Jerusalem Council affirms salvation by grace. God fortifies His people through unity, prayer, and truth—strengthening both physical and spiritual walls against division and false burdens.
<input type="checkbox"/> 15	Gen 16	Mat 16	Hagar encounters God's mercy in exile; Jesus reveals His identity, foretells His suffering, and calls disciples to take up their cross and follow Him.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 5	Acts 16	Nehemiah confronts injustice and restores equity. Paul and Silas, despite imprisonment, lead a jailer to Christ. God values justice and uses adversity for salvation; His people reflect His heart through action, praise, and gospel witness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 16	Gen 17	Mat 17	God establishes circumcision as covenant sign with Abraham; Jesus is transfigured, revealing divine glory, and calls for faith amid doubt and misunderstanding.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 6	Acts 17	Plots against Nehemiah fail as he resists fear. Paul proclaims Christ to Bereans and Athenians. Discernment, perseverance, and Scripture shape faithful responses to opposition, anchoring God's work in truth despite cunning or curiosity.
<input type="checkbox"/> 17	Gen 18	Mat 18-19	Abraham intercedes for Sodom; Jesus calls for humility, warns against leading others to sin, and teaches about forgiveness, marriage, and the kingdom belonging to childlike faith.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 7	Acts 18-19	Nehemiah secures the city, listing returning families. Paul strengthens churches, teaches in Ephesus, and overcomes opposition. God's kingdom expands through structure, teaching, and endurance; His people are numbered, equipped, and empowered to grow in faith and witness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 18	Gen 19	Mat 20	God destroys Sodom but spares Lot; Jesus speaks of servant leadership, the laborers' equal reward, and foretells His death as a ransom for many.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 8	Acts 20	Ezra reads the Law, and people weep, then rejoice. Paul exhorts leaders with tears and truth. God's Word revives hearts; faithful teaching and joyful repentance remain central to guiding God's people in every generation.
<input type="checkbox"/> 19	Gen 20	Mat 21	Abraham deceives Abimelech, yet God protects Sarah; Jesus enters Jerusalem, cleanses the temple, curses a fig tree, and tells parables revealing rejection of God's Son.	<input type="checkbox"/> Neh 9	Acts 21	Israel recounts God's mercy amid their rebellion. Paul journeys to Jerusalem despite warnings. God's story is one of steadfast love and costly obedience; remembering His faithfulness inspires courage to walk in His will.

Revelation's locusts torment the unrepentant, yet many refuse to turn. Both show God's discipline as a path to redemption, balancing wrath with hope for those who seek Him.
<input type="checkbox"/> 142	Deut 3	Ps 70	Moses recounts Israel's conquest east of Jordan; David pleads for swift help from God against his enemies.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 20	Rev 10	Isaiah enacts a sign of coming judgment against Egypt and Cush. In Revelation, the mighty angel declares no more delay as John eats the scroll, symbolizing prophecy to nations—God's purposes will advance through warning and witness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 143	Deut 4	Ps 71	Moses urges obedience to God's laws; the psalmist seeks refuge and declares lifelong trust in God's righteousness and sustaining power.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 21	Rev 11	Isaiah proclaims the downfall of Babylon and Edom. Revelation presents the measuring of the temple, the two witnesses, their martyrdom and resurrection—emphasizing divine sovereignty over judgment and testimony, even amid persecution and temporal triumph of evil.
<input type="checkbox"/> 144	Deut 5	Ps 72	God reaffirms the Ten Commandments; a royal psalm prays for the king's justice, righteousness, and global reign of peace.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 22	Rev 12	Isaiah rebukes Jerusalem's misplaced trust and predicts Shebna's fall. Revelation reveals a cosmic conflict: the woman, child, and dragon depict spiritual warfare—God protects His people as the enemy rages, but ultimate victory belongs to Christ.
<input type="checkbox"/> 145	Deut 6-7	Ps 73	Israel must love God wholeheartedly and reject idolatry; Asaph wrestles with envy but finds refuge in God's eternal presence.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 23	Rev 13	Isaiah prophesies Tyre's ruin and eventual restoration under God's rule. Revelation unveils two beasts representing oppressive political and religious power. The world worships them, but their authority is limited; the faithful endure with wisdom and perseverance.
<input type="checkbox"/> 146	Deut 8	Ps 74-75	Israel is warned not to forget God amid prosperity; the psalmist laments destruction, yet God affirms His righteous judgment.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 24	Rev 14-15	God devastates the earth for its defilement, yet preserves a remnant who sing His glory. Revelation shows the Lamb with the redeemed, angelic proclamations, and the song of Moses—judgment is certain, but worship endures through justice and mercy.
<input type="checkbox"/> 147	Deut 9	Ps 76	Israel's victories are by God's grace, not merit; God is feared for His power and righteous judgment on earth.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 25	Rev 16	Isaiah celebrates God's victory over death and His refuge for the humble. Revelation pours out the seven bowls of wrath upon the earth—righteous judgment against unrepentance, affirming God's holiness and vindication of His people.
<input type="checkbox"/> 148	Deut 10	Ps 77	God calls for reverent obedience and love; in distress, the psalmist remembers God's mighty deeds and faithful care.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 26	Rev 17	Judah praises God's peace and awaits resurrection hope. Revelation presents the judgment of Babylon, portrayed as a harlot allied with worldly powers—yet all are subject to God's sovereign plan and final justice.
<input type="checkbox"/> 149	Deut 11	Ps 78	Blessing depends on obedience; Israel's history shows God's faithfulness despite their rebellion and unbelief.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 27	Rev 18	The Lord defeats Leviathan, restores Israel's fruitfulness, and gathers His people. In Revelation, Babylon falls—its luxury and pride judged in a single hour, and the world mourns. Heaven rejoices at God's true and just recompense.
<input type="checkbox"/> 150	Deut 12	Ps 79	Worship must be centralized and pure; the psalmist pleads for mercy amid desecration of the temple and national ruin.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 28	Rev 19	Isaiah warns of false security and promises the precious cornerstone. Revelation declares heaven's joy, Christ's glorious return as Warrior King, and the supper of God's victory—truth triumphs over deception, righteousness over rebellion.
<input type="checkbox"/> 151	Deut 13	Ps 80	Israel must reject false prophets and idolatry; the psalmist begs God to restore and shine His face upon a broken nation.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 29	Rev 20	Isaiah condemns hypocritical worship and promises transformation through God's wonder. Revelation depicts Satan's binding, final rebellion, and the great white throne judgment—justice is executed, and the faithful are secured in life everlasting.
<input type="checkbox"/> 152	Deut 14	Ps 81	Israel is called to holiness in diet and tithe; God laments their stubbornness and urges them to listen and be satisfied.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 30	Rev 21	Judah's trust in Egypt is rebuked, yet God's grace offers salvation and restoration. Revelation unveils the new heaven and new earth—God dwelling with His people, wiping away every tear in the fullness of His redemptive promise.
<input type="checkbox"/> 153	Deut 15	Ps 82	Commands for debt release and generosity are given; God rebukes unjust judges and calls them to defend the weak.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 31	Rev 22	Isaiah urges trust in the Lord, not horses or human strength, promising divine protection. Revelation concludes with the river of life, the Lamb's throne, and Christ's soon return—calling all to come and receive eternal life freely.
<input type="checkbox"/> 154	Deut 16-17	Ps 83	Instructions for just worship and leadership are outlined; the psalmist prays for God to defeat enemies and uphold His name.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 32	Mat 1	A righteous king will reign, bringing justice and peace, and the Spirit will renew hearts. Matthew begins with the genealogy of Jesus, the Son of David and Abraham, fulfilling covenant promises through the virgin birth of Immanuel.
<input type="checkbox"/> 155	Deut 18	Ps 84-85	God promises a true prophet like Moses; the psalmist longs for God's presence and prays for restoration.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 33	Mat 2-3	God is exalted in judgment and salvation; Zion is secure in His righteousness. Matthew recounts Jesus' early life, the Magi, escape to Egypt, and John's call to repentance—preparing hearts for the kingdom now breaking in.
<input type="checkbox"/> 156	Deut 19	Ps 86	Cities of refuge are established for justice; David cries out for mercy and praises God's steadfast love and faithfulness.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 34	Mat 4	Edom's judgment reflects God's wrath against all nations; total desolation awaits the wicked. Jesus overcomes Satan's temptations in the wilderness, begins preaching repentance, and calls disciples—light dawns in Galilee fulfilling Isaiah's prophetic vision.
<input type="checkbox"/> 157	Deut 20	Ps 87	Guidelines for warfare emphasize God's presence; Zion is honored as the city where all nations are born in God.	<input type="checkbox"/> Isa 35	Mat 5	The desert blooms as the redeemed return with joy; God strengthens the weak and heals. Jesus teaches the Beatitudes, calling for righteousness, mercy, and a pure heart—ushering in the blessed life of the kingdom of heaven.

<input type="checkbox"/> 219	1 Sa 5	Acts 6-7	God humiliates Dagon to show His supremacy. Stephen, full of grace and truth, recounts Israel's history and is martyred, seeing Jesus standing at God's right hand as he dies.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 33	Ps 30-31	God reaffirms His covenant with David and promises restoration. David thanks God for deliverance and entrusts his spirit to the Lord amid distress.
<input type="checkbox"/> 220	1 Sa 6	Acts 8	The ark returns with divine glory; Israel learns reverence. In Acts, persecution scatters believers, spreading the gospel as Philip preaches in Samaria and to an Ethiopian official.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 34	Ps 32	Judah breaks their covenant of release and faces judgment. David rejoices in the blessedness of forgiveness, urging all to confess and trust God's faithful love.
<input type="checkbox"/> 221	1 Sa 7-8	Acts 9	Israel repents and turns to the Lord under Samuel, then demands a king despite warnings. Meanwhile, Saul is dramatically converted on the Damascus road and begins proclaiming Jesus as the Son of God, marking a pivotal moment in early Christian mission.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 35	Ps 33	The Rechabites' obedience highlights Judah's rebellion; God's faithful word stands forever. He loves righteousness, watches His people, and delivers those who trust in Him.
<input type="checkbox"/> 222	1 Sa 9	Acts 10	Saul is chosen and anointed as king through divine appointment. Simultaneously, Peter receives a vision revealing God's impartial salvation, leading to the Gentile Cornelius receiving the Holy Spirit, signifying the gospel's reach beyond Jewish boundaries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 36	Ps 34	Jeremiah's scroll is burned, but God preserves His word. The Lord hears, delivers, and redeems the righteous, protecting all who fear Him.
<input type="checkbox"/> 223	1 Sa 10	Acts 11	Saul is publicly affirmed as king, but not all accept him. In Jerusalem, Peter recounts the Gentile conversion, and the church glorifies God, recognizing that repentance unto life has been granted even to the Gentiles.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 37	Ps 35	Jeremiah is imprisoned yet faithfully speaks God's word. David pleads for justice and rejoices in God's vindication of the humble and righteous.
<input type="checkbox"/> 224	1 Sa 11	Acts 12	Saul leads Israel to victory and is reaffirmed as king. Meanwhile, persecution intensifies: James is martyred, Peter is miraculously delivered, and Herod dies under God's judgment, but the word of God continues to increase and multiply.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 38	Ps 36	Jeremiah is rescued from a pit; God's steadfast love and righteousness contrast with human wickedness, providing refuge for the faithful.
<input type="checkbox"/> 225	1 Sa 12	Acts 13	Samuel exhorts Israel to fear the Lord and obey His voice, recounting His faithfulness. Paul and Barnabas begin their missionary journey, preaching Jesus as Savior, and many Gentiles rejoice and believe, despite growing opposition.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 39	Ps 37	Jerusalem falls, fulfilling God's warning. The psalm contrasts the fate of the wicked with the peace and inheritance promised to the righteous.
<input type="checkbox"/> 226	1 Sa 13	Acts 14	Saul's disobedience costs him God's favor. Paul and Barnabas face persecution, perform miracles, and appoint elders as they strengthen the disciples, encouraging them to remain steadfast through many tribulations.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 40	Ps 38	Jeremiah remains among the remnant. David laments sin's burden and longs for God's deliverance, expressing deep repentance and trust amid affliction.
<input type="checkbox"/> 227	1 Sa 14	Acts 15	Jonathan's faith leads to victory, but Saul's rash oath brings trouble. The Jerusalem Council confirms salvation by grace through faith, not law, and unity is restored among Jewish and Gentile believers.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 41	Ps 39	Murder and unrest follow Jerusalem's fall. The psalmist reflects on life's brevity, seeking forgiveness and hope beyond earthly suffering.
<input type="checkbox"/> 228	1 Sa 15	Acts 16-17	Saul's partial obedience leads to his rejection by God. Paul's mission expands: he meets Timothy, receives the Macedonian call, and preaches Christ in Philippi and Athens, calling all to repent and believe.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 42	Ps 40-41	Despite seeking guidance, Judah plans disobedience. David praises God's deliverance and prays for mercy, affirming God's help amid betrayal and illness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 229	1 Sa 16	Acts 18	David is anointed, and the Spirit departs from Saul. In Corinth, Paul proclaims Christ amidst opposition, receives encouragement from the Lord, and stays to teach the Word, establishing a growing church.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 43	Ps 42	Judah flees to Egypt against God's command. The psalmist thirsts for God amid despair, remembering past worship and hoping in God's salvation.
<input type="checkbox"/> 230	1 Sa 17	Acts 19	David defeats Goliath by trusting God. In Ephesus, Paul's ministry thrives with miracles and conversions, while spiritual confrontation with false power leads many to renounce magic and exalt the name of Jesus.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 44	Ps 43	Judah refuses to repent of idolatry in Egypt. The psalmist longs for God's light and truth, trusting Him for vindication and joy in His presence.
<input type="checkbox"/> 231	1 Sa 18-19	Acts 20	Saul's jealousy grows as David prospers. In Acts, Paul encourages the Ephesian elders, urging vigilance and faithfulness, forewarning trials, yet affirming God's grace to sustain and build the church.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 45	Ps 44	Baruch is promised life amid judgment. Israel recalls God's past victories but laments present suffering, crying out for renewed help and redemption.
<input type="checkbox"/> 232	1 Sa 20	Acts 21	Jonathan protects David amid Saul's hostility. Paul journeys to Jerusalem, undeterred by warnings of suffering, demonstrating deep commitment to God's calling despite the cost.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 46	Ps 45	God's judgment falls on Egypt, yet He promises deliverance for Israel. Psalm 45 celebrates the royal bridegroom and his everlasting, righteous kingdom.
<input type="checkbox"/> 233	1 Sa 21	Acts 22	David flees and receives consecrated bread. Paul recounts his conversion and divine commission before a hostile crowd in Jerusalem, emphasizing his mission to the Gentiles.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 47-48	Ps 46	God judges Philistia and Moab for pride and false trust. Psalm 46 exalts God as a present refuge and fortress amid nations' turmoil and cosmic upheaval.
<input type="checkbox"/> 234	1 Sa 22	Acts 23	Saul slays priests; David shelters the persecuted. Paul stands before the Sanhedrin, receives assurance from the Lord, and escapes a conspiracy through divine providence and Roman protection.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 49	Ps 47	Judgment is pronounced on many nations; yet restoration is promised. Psalm 47 calls all peoples to worship the sovereign King over all the earth.
<input type="checkbox"/> 235	1 Sa 23	Acts 24	David is pursued but protected by God. Paul defends his faith before Felix, stressing righteousness and judgment, yet remains imprisoned despite his innocence.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 50	Ps 48	Babylon will fall; Israel and Judah will be restored. Psalm 48 celebrates Zion, the city of God, where His steadfast love and righteousness dwell.
<input type="checkbox"/> 236	1 Sa 24	Acts 25-26	David spares Saul's life, showing mercy. Paul boldly defends the gospel before Festus and Agrippa, appealing to Caesar and testifying to Christ's resurrection.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 51	Ps 49-50	God declares Babylon's total ruin and Israel's vindication. Paul survives shipwreck on the way to Rome, comforting all aboard with God's promise of preservation.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jer 52	Ps 51	Jerusalem's destruction is recounted; hope remains in Jehoiachin's release. David's heartfelt confession in Psalm 51 pleads for mercy and renewal.
<input type="checkbox"/> 238	1 Sa 26	Acts 28	David again spares Saul, entrusting justice to God. In Rome, Paul boldly preaches the kingdom of God, unhindered, fulfilling his apostolic calling even under house arrest.	<input type="checkbox"/> Lam 1	Ps 52	Jerusalem laments ruin and betrayal. Psalm 52 contrasts the downfall of the boastful wicked with God's steadfast love toward the righteous.
<input type="checkbox"/> 239	1 Sa 27	Rom 1	David seeks refuge among the Philistines. Paul introduces the gospel, affirming God's wrath against ungodliness and the universal need for righteousness through faith.	<input type="checkbox"/> Lam 2	Ps 53	God's fierce judgment falls on Zion; the people are devastated. Psalm 53 grieves universal corruption, affirming God's salvation for His people.
<input type="checkbox"/> 240	1 Sa 28	Rom 2	Saul seeks forbidden counsel and is condemned. Paul exposes hypocrisy and emphasizes that true judgment comes from God, who sees the heart, not merely external adherence.	<input type="checkbox"/> Lam 3	Ps 54	Amid deep suffering, hope arises in God's steadfast love and faithfulness. Psalm 54 pleads for deliverance and praises God for His sustaining help.
<input type="checkbox"/> 241	1 Sa 29-30	Rom 3	David rescues his people and restores all. Paul declares that all have sinned, but righteousness is available through faith in Jesus Christ apart from the law.	<input type="checkbox"/> Lam 4	Ps 55	Zion's downfall is vividly mourned; prophets and nobles fall alike. Psalm 55 cries out for relief from betrayal, trusting God to sustain the faithful.
<input type="checkbox"/> 242	1 Sa 31	Rom 4	Saul dies in battle. Paul teaches that Abraham was justified by faith, not works, showing salvation is a gift of grace to all who believe.	<input type="checkbox"/> Lam 5	Ps 56	Judah pleads for mercy and restoration amid shame. David trusts God while surrounded by enemies, affirming God's care and praising His steadfast word.
<input type="checkbox"/> 243	2 Sa 1	Rom 5	David mourns Saul and Jonathan with honor. Paul proclaims that believers are justified by faith, reconciled to God, and granted peace through Christ's sacrificial death.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 1	Ps 57	Ezekiel sees God's glorious throne in exile—majestic, sovereign, and holy. David seeks refuge in God's mercy, confident He fulfills His purpose.
<input type="checkbox"/> 244	2 Sa 2	Rom 6-7	David is anointed in Hebron, but conflict follows. Paul urges believers to die to sin and live for God, acknowledging the inner struggle with sin but hope in Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 2	Ps 58-59	Ezekiel is sent to a rebellious house with God's empowering Spirit. David cries for justice against the wicked and protection from violent foes.
<input type="checkbox"/> 245	2 Sa 3	Rom 8	Power shifts to David amid political tension. Paul declares life in the Spirit, assurance of God's love, and victory through Christ, securing believers as God's children.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 3	Ps 60	Ezekiel is commissioned as a watchman, bearing God's heavy word. Israel's defeat brings David to plead for restoration and victory by God's hand.
<input type="checkbox"/> 246	2 Sa 4	Rom 9	Saul's dynasty weakens as David's reign grows. Paul affirms God's sovereign mercy in salvation, revealing His purposeful election and compassion beyond human understanding.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 4	Ps 61	Ezekiel enacts Jerusalem's siege, bearing its guilt. David seeks lasting refuge and vows to praise God, trusting in His protective shelter.
<input type="checkbox"/> 247	2 Sa 5	Rom 10	David reigns over all Israel, conquering Jerusalem. Paul emphasizes faith comes by hearing the gospel, which must be proclaimed for salvation to reach all people.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 5	Ps 62	Jerusalem will face severe judgment for covenant betrayal. David rests in God alone, his rock and salvation, warning not to trust in riches or pride.
<input type="checkbox"/> 248	2 Sa 6	Rom 11	The ark is brought to Jerusalem with joy. Paul explains Israel's partial hardening and God's mysterious, merciful plan to save both Jews and Gentiles in His perfect timing.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 6	Ps 63	Idolatrous Israel faces desolation, yet a remnant will repent. David thirsts for God in a dry land, rejoicing in His steadfast love and deliverance.
<input type="checkbox"/> 249	2 Sa 7	Rom 12	God makes a covenant with David, promising an eternal kingdom. Paul calls believers to live as living sacrifices, using spiritual gifts humbly and loving sincerely in community.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 7	Ps 64	The end has come; Israel's doom is certain due to abominations. The psalmist prays for protection and rejoices as God defends the righteous.
<input type="checkbox"/> 250	2 Sa 8-9	Rom 13	David rules with justice and kindness, showing covenant loyalty to Jonathan's son. Paul urges submission to authorities and fulfillment of the law through love as day draws near.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 8	Ps 65	Ezekiel sees secret idolatry defiling the temple. Psalm 65 praises God who forgives, blesses creation, and satisfies the earth with abundance.
<input type="checkbox"/> 251	2 Sa 10	Rom 14	David defeats Ammon with God's help; Paul teaches believers not to pass judgment on one another but to live in peace and not cause others to stumble in faith. God honors humility, not personal conviction above unity.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 9	Ps 66	God commands judgment on the wicked, sparing only the mourners. Psalm 66 celebrates God's mighty works and faithfulness in refining His people.
<input type="checkbox"/> 252	2 Sa 11	Rom 15-16	David sins with Bathsheba, but God sees; Paul calls for harmony, endurance, and glorifying God together. Greetings affirm love in the Church. God's mercy extends to all, but holiness must define leadership and personal witness.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 10	Ps 67-68	God's glory departs the temple in judgment. Psalm 67 asks for God's global blessing; Psalm 68 praises His victorious, protective power for His people.
<input type="checkbox"/> 253	2 Sa 12	1 Co 1	Nathan rebukes David, leading to repentance; Paul reminds believers of God's call through Christ, urging unity and dependence on God's wisdom, not human boasting. Forgiveness and faith are grounded in God's power, not personal merit.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 11	Ps 69	Though leaders perish, God promises new hearts for the exiles. David laments rejection and seeks deliverance, confident God hears the afflicted.
<input type="checkbox"/> 254	2 Sa 13	1 Co 2	Amnon's sin shatters David's house; Absalom's anger grows. Paul proclaims Christ crucified, revealed by the Spirit. Human wisdom cannot grasp spiritual truths—only God reveals what eye has not seen nor ear heard.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 12	Ps 70	Ezekiel's signs warn of coming exile; many still ignore the message. David urgently pleads for God's help and deliverance from shame and enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 255	2 Sa 14	1 Co 3	Joab engineers Absalom's return, but reconciliation is hollow. Paul says believers are God's temple, not divided by men. Ministry is God's work; foundations must be laid on Christ alone, with each builder tested by fire.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 13	Ps 71	False prophets face judgment for leading Israel astray. The psalmist, from youth to old age, declares God's faithfulness and power to save.

<input type="checkbox"/> 256	2 Sa 15	1 Co 4	Absalom steals hearts and rebels; David flees. Paul says apostles are servants, not kings—enduring hardship, yet faithful stewards of mysteries. God sees motives and will reveal hearts in time. Trust must not be in appearances.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 14	Ps 72	God rebukes idolaters and promises judgment through His righteous acts. Psalm 72 envisions a just, enduring king who brings peace and blesses all nations.
<input type="checkbox"/> 257	2 Sa 16	1 Co 5	David endures insults while Absalom seeks power. Paul rebukes the church for tolerating sin. Purity is vital in Christ's body—believers must judge sin inside the church to preserve holiness and honor the sacrifice of Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 15	Ps 73	Israel is likened to a useless vine, destined for fire. Asaph wrestles with the wicked's prosperity but finds true refuge and strength in God alone.
<input type="checkbox"/> 258	2 Sa 17	1 Co 6	Ahithophel's counsel is thwarted; God protects David. Paul warns against lawsuits and immorality. Believers are washed, sanctified, justified—bodies are not for sin but for the Lord. We are temples of the Holy Spirit, bought with a price.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 16	Ps 74	God recounts Jerusalem's unfaithfulness and His mercy amid judgment. Psalm 74 laments temple destruction and appeals to God's covenant faithfulness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 259	2 Sa 18	1 Co 7	Absalom dies despite David's plea, and David mourns bitterly. Paul urges believers to honor marriage and celibacy as gifts, living undivided before the Lord. In all seasons, remain faithful to God's call and pursue undistracted devotion to Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 17	Ps 75	A parable warns Judah of pride and exile, yet God will raise a humble branch. Psalm 75 exalts God as the just Judge who humbles the wicked.
<input type="checkbox"/> 260	2 Sa 19-20	1 Co 8-9	David returns; loyalty divides Israel. Sheba rebels and is stopped. Paul teaches love over knowledge, limiting freedom for others' sake. As an apostle, he forgoes rights to win more for the gospel. Godly leadership models restraint for gospel impact.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 18	Ps 76-77	God affirms individual responsibility—each soul is accountable. Asaph recalls God's might and faithfulness even amid deep distress and questioning.
<input type="checkbox"/> 261	2 Sa 21	1 Co 10	David avenges Saul's sin and defeats giants. Paul warns against idolatry using Israel's past, urging believers to flee evil, honor God, and consider others in freedom. Everything is lawful, but not all builds up—glorify God in all you do.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 19	Ps 78	Lamenting fallen princes, Ezekiel shows Israel's leadership failures. Psalm 78 recounts God's faithfulness despite Israel's repeated rebellion.
<input type="checkbox"/> 262	2 Sa 22	1 Co 11	David sings praise for deliverance: God is his rock, shield, and Savior. Paul instructs on honoring Christ in worship, particularly the Lord's Supper, urging self-examination. Both celebrate God's faithful rescue and call for reverence and right conduct in His presence.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 20	Ps 79	God reviews Israel's rebellious history and vows judgment and restoration. Psalm 79 pleads for mercy after destruction, seeking God's justice.
<input type="checkbox"/> 263	2 Sa 23	1 Co 12	David recounts God's covenant and celebrates mighty men of valor. Paul teaches that the Church is one body with many members, each gifted by the Spirit. Just as warriors served David, all in Christ must use gifts to serve others.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 21	Ps 80	God's sword of judgment is unsheathed against Jerusalem. Psalm 80 cries for restoration, likening Israel to a ruined vine needing God's favor.
<input type="checkbox"/> 264	2 Sa 24	1 Co 13	David repents after a sinful census and offers sacrifice on God's appointed site. Paul describes love as the highest gift—patient, kind, enduring. Love never ends. True worship and service must rise from sincere, selfless love rooted in God's heart.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 22	Ps 81	God denounces Judah's widespread sin and coming wrath. Psalm 81 recalls God's deliverance and calls His people to repent and listen.
<input type="checkbox"/> 265	1 Kgs 1	1 Co 14	David secures Solomon as king amid Adonijah's rebellion. Paul instructs on orderly, edifying worship—pursue love, desire prophecy, and maintain peace in the Church. God's purposes are established when His people yield to the Spirit and His order in unity.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 23	Ps 82	Two sisters symbolize Jerusalem and Samaria's spiritual adultery and judgment. Psalm 82 condemns unjust rulers and affirms God's ultimate rule.
<input type="checkbox"/> 266	1 Kgs 2	1 Co 15	David charges Solomon with courage and obedience before dying. Paul affirms Christ's resurrection as foundational, giving hope and victory over death. Strengthened by God's promise, believers are to be steadfast, abounding in His work, knowing their labor is not in vain.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 24-25	Ps 83	Jerusalem's fall is foretold with silence commanded in grief. God promises judgment on hostile nations. Psalm 83 asks God to act against enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 267	1 Kgs 3	1 Co 16	Solomon asks for wisdom and receives it. Paul closes with exhortations: be watchful, stand firm, act in love, support ministry generously. God honors humble requests and faithful hearts—wisdom and strength come when we seek Him above all else.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 26	Ps 84	Tyre's downfall is decreed for its pride. Psalm 84 treasures God's presence above all, declaring joy in dwelling near Him.
<input type="checkbox"/> 268	1 Kgs 4	2 Co 1-2	Solomon's wisdom and peace abound, blessing the nation. Paul shares affliction and comfort from God, encouraging forgiveness and reconciliation. God works through trials to build the Church, and the aroma of Christ spreads through those who suffer faithfully.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 27	Ps 85-86	Tyre's lament shows the fall of worldly glory. Psalms 85–86 plead for restoration, mercy, and steadfast love amid need and opposition.
<input type="checkbox"/> 269	1 Kgs 5-6	2 Co 3	Solomon prepares and builds the temple, fulfilling God's promise. Paul declares the new covenant in the Spirit brings lasting glory, unlike the fading covenant of Moses. God's dwelling now shines through transformed hearts, reflecting the surpassing glory of Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 28	Ps 87	The prince of Tyre is judged for pride, yet Israel's restoration is promised. Psalm 87 celebrates God's chosen city, Zion.

<input type="checkbox"/> 270	1 Kgs 7	2 Co 4	Solomon completes the temple's furnishings with great detail. Paul proclaims treasure in jars of clay—believers carry Christ's light through suffering, not losing heart. Earthly temples fade, but the eternal glory of knowing Christ outweighs every hardship for the faithful.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 29	Ps 88	Egypt will fall and be humbled; restoration is distant. Psalm 88 is a cry of unrelieved sorrow, yet directed toward God.
<input type="checkbox"/> 271	1 Kgs 8	2 Co 5	Solomon dedicates the temple, praising God's faithfulness and praying for mercy. Paul teaches that believers are new creations, reconciled to God through Christ. God's presence is no longer in a building, but in hearts transformed to become His ambassadors of reconciliation.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 30	Ps 89	Egypt's judgment intensifies, revealing God's sovereignty. Psalm 89 exalts God's covenant with David, yet laments its apparent failure.
<input type="checkbox"/> 272	1 Kgs 9	2 Co 6	God reaffirms His covenant with Solomon but warns against disobedience. Paul urges believers not to be yoked with unbelievers, calling for holiness. Faithfulness to God's Word requires separation from sin and wholehearted devotion, for we are the temple of the living God.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 31	Ps 90	Assyria's downfall warns Egypt of prideful strength. Psalm 90 reflects on God's eternal majesty and our fleeting days, pleading for wisdom.
<input type="checkbox"/> 273	1 Kgs 10	2 Co 7	Solomon's wisdom and wealth attract nations, yet the seeds of pride are sown. Paul rejoices over the Corinthians' repentance and godly sorrow. External blessings must not distract from internal transformation—true joy comes when hearts turn fully back to God.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 32	Ps 91	Egypt joins the fallen nations in death. Psalm 91 trusts in God's protection for those who dwell in His shelter.
<input type="checkbox"/> 274	1 Kgs 11	2 Co 8	Solomon turns to foreign gods; the kingdom faces judgment. Paul urges generous giving, modeled after Christ's sacrifice. A wise heart can still fail without steadfast love, but grace enables sacrificial generosity, reflecting God's heart amid changing earthly fortunes.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 33	Ps 92	Ezekiel is reaffirmed as watchman; God desires repentance, not death. Psalm 92 celebrates God's justice and flourishing of the righteous.
<input type="checkbox"/> 275	1 Kgs 12	2 Co 9	Rehoboam's harshness divides the kingdom. Paul teaches cheerful giving brings God's abundant provision. Division results from pride, but generosity and humility open the door to unity and blessing. God loves a cheerful giver who trusts Him with every resource.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 34	Ps 93	God condemns false shepherds and promises to shepherd His flock Himself. Psalm 93 proclaims God's majesty and eternal reign.
<input type="checkbox"/> 276	1 Kgs 13	2 Co 10-11	A prophet disobeys God and dies; warnings are grave. Paul defends his ministry against false apostles, boasting only in Christ's sufferings. God demands obedience and discernment; spiritual authority is grounded in truth, humility, and faithfulness to Christ alone.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 35	Ps 94-95	Edom is judged for violence against Israel. Psalms 94–95 call for trust in God's justice and a responsive heart of worship and obedience.
<input type="checkbox"/> 277	1 Kgs 14	2 Co 12	Jeroboam's sin leads to judgment; Israel declines spiritually. Paul boasts in weaknesses, revealing God's power in trials. Earthly rule fails when hearts stray, but God's grace is sufficient—His power is made perfect in those who depend solely on Him.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 36	Ps 96	God promises Israel a new heart and Spirit, restoring His name. Psalm 96 calls all nations to worship the Lord in holy splendor.
<input type="checkbox"/> 278	1 Kgs 15	2 Co 13	Judah's kings vary in faithfulness; Asa seeks the Lord. Paul ends with a call to examine oneself, pursue restoration, and live in Christ's peace. True leadership walks in integrity, and believers must align themselves with Christ's truth, grace, and fellowship.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 37	Ps 97	God breathes life into dry bones, reviving Israel, and uniting them under one shepherd. Psalm 97 declares God's reign and triumph over evil.
<input type="checkbox"/> 279	1 Kgs 16-17	Gal 1	Israel spirals deeper into idolatry until Elijah boldly confronts Ahab and is sustained by God. Paul defends the gospel's divine origin. Even in widespread apostasy, God raises faithful voices to proclaim grace—not man's gospel, but Christ's unchanging truth.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 38	Ps 98	Ezekiel prophesies God's judgment on Gog, while Psalm 98 calls for joy over God's righteousness and salvation, highlighting His victory over enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 280	1 Kgs 18	Gal 2	Elijah challenges Baal's prophets; fire falls from heaven affirming the Lord. Paul defends justification by faith, confronting hypocrisy. God's truth prevails when boldness and faith unite—salvation is by grace alone, and hearts must burn for God's glory, not approval.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 39	Ps 99	Ezekiel describes God's judgment on Gog and restoration of Israel, and Psalm 99 celebrates God's holiness and sovereignty, encouraging worship and reverence.
<input type="checkbox"/> 281	1 Kgs 19	Gal 3	Elijah flees in fear but meets God in a whisper. Paul teaches that faith, not law, makes us heirs of the promise. God strengthens the weary and fulfills His covenant through faith, not performance, inviting us to rest in grace.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 40	Ps 100	Ezekiel's vision of the temple's restoration emphasizes holiness, while Psalm 100 calls all nations to worship God joyfully, acknowledging His goodness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 282	1 Kgs 20	Gal 4	God grants victory to Ahab despite his flaws. Paul explains believers are no longer slaves but sons. Even in failure, God's mercy reveals His fatherhood; He desires relational intimacy over legal obligation, drawing us to freedom in Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 41	Ps 101	Ezekiel details the temple's structure, focusing on holiness, while Psalm 101 expresses a commitment to righteousness and justice in one's personal conduct.
<input type="checkbox"/> 283	1 Kgs 21	Gal 5	Ahab covets Naboth's vineyard and faces judgment; Paul urges walking by the Spirit, not the flesh. Sin enslaves, but the Spirit produces life-giving fruit. God calls us to holiness, confronting injustice with truth and guiding us into freedom.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eze 42	Ps 102	Ezekiel continues his temple vision, emphasizing the holiness of the sacred space, and Psalm 102 cries out to God for mercy amidst suffering and distress.
<input type="checkbox"/> 284	1 Kgs 22	Gal 6	Micaiah prophesies truth amid false voices; Ahab falls in battle. Paul urges bearing one another's burdens. God honors those who speak truth in love, and true community is shaped by restoration, humility, and sowing eternal good through the Spirit.	<input type="checkbox"/> Eph 1	Eze 43	Ephesians highlights the spiritual blessings in Christ, while Ezekiel envisions God's glory returning to the temple, symbolizing God's presence among His people.

<input type="checkbox"/> 294	2 Kgs 11	Col 2	Joash is crowned; covenant worship restored. Paul warns against legalism and empty tradition. God guards His promises and establishes true worship, not through rituals, but through union with Christ, in whom the fullness of deity dwells bodily.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 5	Ps 115	Daniel interprets the writing on the wall for Belshazzar, condemning his pride, while Psalm 115 contrasts God's glory with idols, affirming God's sovereignty.
<input type="checkbox"/> 295	2 Kgs 12	Col 3	Joash repairs the temple yet tolerates compromise. Paul calls for putting on the new self. Outward reform is not enough—God desires transformed hearts, where Christ reigns, producing holiness, love, and peace in every word and deed.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 6	Ps 116	Daniel is rescued from the lion's den for his faithfulness, and Psalm 116 expresses gratitude for God's deliverance from death and trouble.
<input type="checkbox"/> 296	2 Kgs 13	Col 4	Elisha dies, yet God continues to deliver Israel. Paul urges prayer and faithful witness. God's power outlives His servants, and His Word multiplies through His people's lives—grace empowers perseverance, wisdom, and boldness in every opportunity.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 7	Ps 117	Daniel sees a vision of the Son of Man's eternal kingdom, and Psalm 117 calls all nations to praise the Lord for His great love and faithfulness.
<input type="checkbox"/> 297	2 Kgs 14	1 Th 1	Amaziah partially obeys; judgment follows. Paul rejoices in the Thessalonians' faith and example. God seeks full devotion, not half-hearted service. True gospel reception transforms lives with power, producing enduring hope and bold witness in all circumstances.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 8	Ps 118	Daniel's vision of a ram and goat points to future empires, while Psalm 118 praises God for His steadfast love and for being a refuge in times of trouble.
<input type="checkbox"/> 298	2 Kgs 15-16	1 Th 2	Kings rebel and compromise; Israel declines. Paul's ministry reflects gentleness, integrity, and perseverance. Leadership rooted in God's Word builds lasting fruit, even amid resistance. Faithfulness, not popularity, marks those who please God,	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 9	Ps 119	Daniel prays for Israel's forgiveness and the fulfillment of God's promises, and Psalm 119 celebrates God's word as the source of wisdom and guidance
<input type="checkbox"/> 299	2 Kgs 17	1 Th 3	Israel falls to Assyria for rejecting God. Paul sends Timothy to strengthen the church. God judges idolatry but preserves a faithful remnant. Even in affliction, steadfast faith and love sustain the people of God with enduring encouragement.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 10-11	Ps 120	Daniel's vision reveals future conflicts between kingdoms, while Psalm 120 expresses distress over deceit and calls for God's deliverance from enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 300	2 Kgs 18	1 Th 4	Hezekiah trusts God and resists Assyria. Paul urges holy living and hope in Christ's return. Trust in the Lord defies fear, and godliness reflects our calling as we wait for the return of the Lord with assurance and purity.	<input type="checkbox"/> Dan 12	Ps 121	Daniel prophesies about the end times and resurrection, while Psalm 121 assures God's constant protection and help, especially in times of trouble.
<input type="checkbox"/> 301	2 Kgs 19	1 Th 5	Hezekiah prays and God miraculously delivers Jerusalem. Paul exhorts believers to stay awake and live ready. God hears the cries of the righteous and rescues powerfully. We are to remain sober, faithful, and filled with hope in Christ's return.	<input type="checkbox"/> 2 Th 1	Hos 1	Paul encourages perseverance under persecution, promising justice for the wicked, while Hosea's marriage to Gomer symbolizes God's relationship with unfaithful Israel.

<input type="checkbox"/> 302	2 Kgs 20	2 Th 2	Hezekiah is healed but falters in pride. Paul warns of rebellion and the man of lawlessness. God grants mercy, yet warns against spiritual complacency. Stand firm, knowing the Lord will overthrow evil with the breath of His mouth.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 2	Ps 124	Hosea speaks of God's judgment and restoration, while Psalm 124 praises God for deliverance, recognizing that Israel's rescue is only through His power.
<input type="checkbox"/> 303	2 Kgs 21	2 Th 3	Manasseh leads Judah into great evil; Paul commands diligence in doing good. Even deep rebellion invites judgment, yet God calls us to faithfulness and prayer. Idleness and evil may abound, but we press on with quiet strength in Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 3	Ps 125	Hosea's reconciliation with Gomer symbolizes God's love and mercy for Israel, while Psalm 125 speaks of God's protection over those who trust in Him.
<input type="checkbox"/> 304	2 Kgs 22	1 Ti 1	Josiah rediscovers the Law and humbles himself. Paul reminds Timothy of God's mercy and sound doctrine. The Word convicts and restores. True ministry flows from grace and love, not legalism or speculation. God's mercy rewrites our story.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 4	Ps 126	Hosea condemns Israel's idolatry and sin, while Psalm 126 celebrates the restoration of Israel, expressing hope and joy for God's redemptive work.
<input type="checkbox"/> 305	2 Kgs 23	1 Ti 2	Josiah leads sweeping reform. Paul urges prayer and godly conduct. Revival springs from Scripture and reverence. Leadership and intercession shape nations. God calls both men and women to roles marked by humility, holiness, and submission to His order.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 5	Ps 127	Hosea condemns Israel's leaders for their corruption, while Psalm 127 emphasizes that unless the Lord builds the house, efforts are in vain.
<input type="checkbox"/> 306	2 Kgs 24	1 Ti 3	Judah is exiled for continued rebellion. Paul outlines qualifications for church leaders. God desires integrity in both kingdom and church. Leadership must reflect godliness, as those entrusted with His household, especially in times of judgment and transition.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 6	Ps 128	Hosea calls for Israel's repentance, promising restoration, while Psalm 128 describes the blessings of those who fear the Lord and walk in His ways.
<input type="checkbox"/> 307	2 Kgs 25	1 Ti 4	Jerusalem falls and the temple is destroyed. Paul urges Timothy to stay anchored in truth. Even amid collapse, God's promises endure. We must train in godliness, refusing false teaching and holding fast to Scripture as we wait in hope.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 7	Ps 129	Hosea laments Israel's continued sin and lack of repentance, while Psalm 129 recalls Israel's oppression and celebrates God's justice against enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 308	1 Chr 1-2	1 Ti 5	Genealogies affirm God's sovereign line through generations. Paul gives counsel on care within the church. The God of history also shepherds His church. Family and honor matter to God, from Abraham to Timothy, in both legacy and present care.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 8	Ps 130	Hosea pronounces judgment on Israel for idolatry and rebellion, while Psalm 130 is a cry for mercy and forgiveness, hoping in God's redemption.
<input type="checkbox"/> 309	1 Chr 3	1 Ti 6	David's royal line is traced in detail. Paul warns against greed and urges godliness with contentment. Kings may rise, but only godliness endures. The riches of this world are fleeting—true wealth lies in pursuing righteousness, gentleness, and the eternal King.	<input type="checkbox"/> 2 Ti 1	Hos 9	Paul encourages Timothy in faith, urging boldness in the gospel, while Hosea warns Israel of impending judgment for its idolatry and disobedience.
<input type="checkbox"/> 310	1 Chr 4	2 Ti 2	Tribes and leaders are named, including Jabez who prayed for blessing. Paul exhorts Timothy to be a faithful servant. The Lord honors those who call on Him in sincerity, living as vessels of honor in the household of God.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 10	Ps 133	Hosea condemns Israel's sin, prophesying destruction, while Psalm 133 celebrates the beauty of unity among God's people, a source of blessing.
<input type="checkbox"/> 311	1 Chr 5	2 Ti 3	Reuben's tribe is remembered for war and prayer. Paul warns of difficult days and false teachers. Spiritual strength requires truth, prayer, and discernment. Scripture equips us for every good work amid deception and cultural decay.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 11	Ps 134	Hosea speaks of God's love and mourning over Israel's waywardness, while Psalm 134 calls the servants of the Lord to bless God with praise.
<input type="checkbox"/> 312	1 Chr 6	2 Ti 4	The priestly line of Levi is preserved. Paul urges Timothy to preach the Word in season and out. Faithful ministry rests in lineage of truth. God calls us to proclaim Christ with endurance, whether heard or opposed.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 12	Ps 135	Hosea calls Israel to repentance and acknowledges God's covenant faithfulness, while Psalm 135 praises God's sovereignty and mighty acts in history.
<input type="checkbox"/> 313	1 Chr 7	Tit 1	Tribal histories of warriors and leaders are recorded. Paul outlines qualifications for elders. Strong character and sound doctrine are essential in both the home and the church. Leadership must be rooted in truth, integrity, and gospel conviction.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 13	Ps 136	Hosea prophesies judgment on Israel for idolatry, while Psalm 136 recounts God's enduring love and faithfulness in Israel's history.
<input type="checkbox"/> 314	1 Chr 8	Tit 2	The tribe of Benjamin is detailed, including Saul's line. Paul calls all ages to godly behavior. Legacy is built through generational faithfulness—older men and women, teaching the younger, adorn the doctrine of God with holy living.	<input type="checkbox"/> Hos 14	Ps 137	Hosea offers hope for Israel's restoration, calling for repentance, while Psalm 137 laments the exile in Babylon, longing for Jerusalem's restoration.
<input type="checkbox"/> 315	1 Chr 9	Tit 3	Post-exile returnees and gatekeepers are honored. Paul reminds believers to be ready for good works and avoid divisions. God cherishes faithfulness in unseen roles. We're called to humility, kindness, and gospel-fueled good deeds for His glory.	<input type="checkbox"/> Joe 1	Ps 138	Joel calls for repentance in the face of the locust plague, while Psalm 138 praises God for His faithfulness and answers to prayer.
<input type="checkbox"/> 316	1 Chr 10	Phlm	Saul's tragic death shows the cost of unfaithfulness. Paul appeals for mercy and reconciliation between Philemon and Onesimus. While sin destroys, grace restores. God delights in redemptive relationships that reflect the forgiveness we've received in Christ.	<input type="checkbox"/> Joe 2	Ps 139	Joel calls for a national repentance in preparation for the day of the Lord, while Psalm 139 reflects on God's intimate knowledge and care for His people.

<input type="checkbox"/> 318	1 Chr 13	Heb 3	David tries to move the ark but fails to follow God's instructions. Hebrews warns against hardening our hearts. God is holy and precise—reverent obedience is vital as we share in Christ by holding our confidence firm to the end.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 1	Ps 142	Amos pronounces God's judgment on surrounding nations for their transgressions, while Psalm 142 is a desperate prayer for God's refuge in times of distress.
<input type="checkbox"/> 319	1 Chr 14	Heb 4	David experiences victory through divine guidance. Hebrews calls us to enter God's rest through faith. Obedience and intimacy with God lead to peace. We rest not in our efforts, but in the finished work of Christ, our Sabbath rest.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 2	Ps 143	Amos pronounces judgment on Israel and neighboring nations for their sins, while Psalm 143 is a prayer for God's mercy and guidance, pleading for deliverance from enemies.
<input type="checkbox"/> 320	1 Chr 15	Heb 5	David brings the ark with honor and joy. Hebrews speaks of Jesus as our High Priest, appointed by God and full of compassion. True worship flows from reverence and knowledge of Christ's priestly role—He mediates with perfect understanding and grace.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 3	Ps 144	Amos speaks of Israel's sin and inevitable judgment, while Psalm 144 praises God as a protector and deliverer, asking for His help in battle and times of trouble.
<input type="checkbox"/> 321	1 Chr 16	Heb 6	David leads worship, giving thanks to God's faithfulness. Hebrews urges perseverance and maturity in faith. Praise and endurance walk hand-in-hand. God is just, not forgetting our love and labor—He anchors our souls with unshakable hope.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 4	Ps 145	Amos warns Israel about its pride and unrepentance, while Psalm 145 magnifies God's greatness, highlighting His majesty, goodness, and faithfulness in all generations.
<input type="checkbox"/> 322	1 Chr 17	Heb 7	God promises David an eternal throne. Hebrews presents Jesus as our eternal High Priest like Melchizedek. David's covenant finds fulfillment in Christ, whose priesthood brings salvation forever and intercession without end.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 5	Ps 146	Amos calls for justice and righteousness while condemning Israel's hypocrisy, while Psalm 146 praises God for His faithfulness and care for the oppressed.
<input type="checkbox"/> 323	1 Chr 18	Heb 8	David reigns with justice, expanding the kingdom. Hebrews reveals Jesus as Mediator of a better covenant. Earthly victories point to spiritual realities—Christ writes His laws on our hearts and calls us His people.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 6	Ps 147	Amos condemns Israel's complacency and wealth, warning of judgment, while Psalm 147 celebrates God's sovereignty and His care for Jerusalem and all creation.
<input type="checkbox"/> 324	1 Chr 19	Heb 9	David defeats his enemies; Hebrews speaks of Christ's perfect, once-for-all sacrifice. Worldly battles pale beside the cosmic redemption accomplished at the cross—Christ entered the heavenly Holy Place to secure eternal redemption.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 7	Ps 148	Amos shares visions of impending judgment on Israel, while Psalm 148 calls all creation to praise the Lord, exalting Him as Creator and Sustainer of all.
<input type="checkbox"/> 325	1 Chr 20	Heb 10-11	David wins great victories; Hebrews calls believers to unwavering faith. True conquest lies not in sword but in endurance. The faithful—like David—conquer kingdoms by trusting the unseen, and God rewards those who seek Him.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 8	Ps 149-150	Amos warns of the coming famine of God's word and Israel's impending judgment, while Psalms 149-150 urge praise for God's justice, sovereignty, and power.
<input type="checkbox"/> 326	1 Chr 21	Heb 12	David sins by numbering Israel, but repents. Hebrews urges discipline as God's loving correction. The Lord purifies His people through hardship so they may share in His holiness and reap the fruit of righteousness.	<input type="checkbox"/> Amo 9	Luk 1	Amos prophesies the restoration of Israel after judgment, while Luke 1 details the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and the announcement of Jesus' coming salvation.
<input type="checkbox"/> 327	1 Chr 22-23	Heb 13	David prepares for the temple and organizes Levites. Hebrews calls for continual sacrifice of praise and doing good. Kingdom service flows from love and honor—Christ is the same forever; our lives are a pleasing offering to Him.	<input type="checkbox"/> Oba	Luk 2	Obadiah prophesies Edom's downfall and Israel's ultimate restoration, while Luke 2 narrates the birth of Jesus, the Savior, and the angelic proclamation of peace.
<input type="checkbox"/> 328	1 Chr 24	Jam 1	Priests are divided into faithful service. James calls for perseverance, wisdom, and active faith. Ministry and maturity begin with hearing and doing the Word. Holiness isn't status—it's humble, obedient response to God.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jon 1	Luk 3	Jonah flees God's call to Nineveh, facing a storm and being swallowed by a great fish, while Luke 3 presents John the Baptist's ministry of repentance and the coming of Christ.
<input type="checkbox"/> 329	1 Chr 25	Jam 2	Musicians prophesy and lead worship. James teaches that faith without works is dead. God delights in service flowing from real faith—a faith that sings, serves, and acts in love toward neighbor and stranger alike.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jon 2	Luk 4	Jonah prays from inside the fish, acknowledging God's deliverance, while Luke 4 describes Jesus' temptation, His rejection in Nazareth, and the beginning of His public ministry.
<input type="checkbox"/> 330	1 Chr 26	Jam 3	Gatekeepers and treasurers are appointed for holy duties. James warns of the tongue's power. Those entrusted with God's house must speak and act with wisdom—true service and speech must be peaceable, pure, and filled with grace.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jon 3	Luk 5	Jonah obeys God's command to preach repentance to Nineveh, leading to their salvation, while Luke 5 describes Jesus calling His first disciples and performing miracles.
<input type="checkbox"/> 331	1 Chr 27	Jam 4	David's officials and warriors are listed. James confronts pride, calling for submission to God. Leadership, like life, must be lived in humility. We are not our own masters—God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.	<input type="checkbox"/> Jon 4	Luk 6	Jonah struggles with God's mercy toward Nineveh, while Luke 6 records Jesus' teachings on loving enemies and the Beatitudes, and healing on the Sabbath.
<input type="checkbox"/> 332	1 Chr 28	Jam 5	David charges Solomon to serve with whole heart. James calls the rich to repent and the suffering to pray. Faithful leadership and living require integrity, prayer, and patience until the coming of the Lord.	<input type="checkbox"/> Mic 1-2	Luk 7	Micah pronounces judgment on Israel and Judah for their injustice, while Luke 7 tells of Jesus healing a centurion's servant and forgiving a sinful woman.
<input type="checkbox"/> 333	1 Chr 29	1 Pe 1-2	David and the people give generously to the temple. Peter reminds believers they are chosen, called to holiness. God sees both the generous gift and the purified heart—His people are a royal priesthood offering spiritual sacrifices.	<input type="checkbox"/> Mic 3	Luk 8-9	Micah condemns Israel's leaders for their corruption, while Luke 8-9 recounts Jesus' miracles, the calming of the storm, and the feeding of the five thousand.
<input type="checkbox"/> 334	2 Chr 1	1 Pe 3	Solomon asks for wisdom. Peter exhorts believers to suffer for righteousness. God honors humble requests and faithful suffering—blessing comes not through ease, but by honoring Christ as holy, even when wronged.	<input type="checkbox"/> Mic 4	Luk 10	Micah prophesies the future peace and restoration of Israel, while Luke 10 speaks of the sending of the seventy-two disciples and the parable of the Good Samaritan.
<input type="checkbox"/> 335	2 Chr 2	1 Pe 4	Solomon prepares for the temple; Peter calls believers to suffer with purpose. Service and suffering both glorify God when done in His strength. Rejoice, for sharing in Christ's suffering leads to sharing in His glory.	<input type="checkbox"/> Mic 5	Luk 11	Micah foretells the birth of a ruler in Bethlehem, while Luke 11 records Jesus teaching about prayer, the Lord's Prayer, and rebuking the Pharisees.
